

Another Day

At breakfast on the deck overlooking the lake Kim asked Carrie if she had a good time last night. Carrie said it was wonderful and hoped it would not jeopardize their working relationship. Kim assured it wouldn't; she also said it was a great and new experience for us and would be sure that it wouldn't happen again. Carrie agreed.

Boy was it hot into the 90's. As we were preparing to go on the boat Kim's cell rang...a serious problem at work that required her immediate attention. As she pulled away from the summer home she told us to have a good time. As dinner time approached Kim was still not back, finally calling and said she would not be back and I could bring Carrie back to the city tomorrow afternoon.

At home after dinner we were very uncomfortable with each other - it was still in the high 80's and no AC. We got our swim suits on and went down for a swim. Carrie jumped right in off the dock...when she came up, her nipples were erect. I stared at her and she said I had a good pup tent in my swim suit...I was embarrassed. We knew that we had to behave. At the house I put on shorts and a T shirt, Carrie had a tank top and shorts...obviously neither of us wore underwear. We were both aroused and I touched my hard cock thru my shorts...she said that wasn't fair so she put her hand between her legs and rubbed her cunt. We laughed...no more booze and we were going to behave. A while later we agreed to help each other relieve tension so I fingered her...first with one finger, then two. She moaned louder and louder grabbing my cock as she came. After resting we agreed we almost behaved.

I couldn't wait to get into my bedroom and jerk off...I was really hot. Going upstairs she followed me into the bedroom, dropped off her clothes and pulled down my shorts. She not only gave me a sensual BJ but took my "right into the back of her throat...but not to climax. We agreed that we were even. Laying there we both dropped off.

Sometime later, half asleep we woke up - I was erect and she was wet...I wanted to repay her so I put her legs over my shoulders and searched her clit with my tongue...she helped by spreading her moist lips with her hands. She directed me to be gentle with my tongue. I don't know how long I did this but it was sweet and hot and tasted so nice. She started to tremble and shake all over - no loud moaning. Suddenly she screamed and her juices erupted all over my face. I could hardly breathe but it was wonderful. We were both exhausted and fell into a deep sleep. Our last day here and it was nearly noon.
