

daydreaming

That night he called me and told me he wanted to talk to me privately. I met him at his house at around 8pm. I wore a strapless red shirt with no bra since my boobs are a 32C and I wore shorts with a sexy red lace thong. Once I got to his house we talked for a while and then that's when he said it... I have liked you since the first day I met you. I would daydream about you everytime I had a chance. So I was wondering to you feel the same for me. So I answered... I have the same feeling for you. That's when he got close to me and his soft lips touched mine. He rubbed his tongue against mine and touched me everywhere. When we finished he asked if he could make love to me because I turned him on the second I came in. I then said yes and that I would meet him on his bed I just need 3 minutes. I went to the restroom and fixed my hair, makeup and perfumed myself. When I walked into his room he was on his bed with only his underwear. I noticed a large bump through it. I then made him a sexy strip dance. Once I had only my thong on I slowly got on him kissing from his mouth to his neck to his stomach down towards his dick. There I took his underwear off and started giving him a hand job. This is when he started moaning softly. Then I started sucking and licking his dick. After a few minutes of sucking his giant dick we made out for few more minutes and then he put his hound down towards my pussy and started fingering it while nibbleing on my nipple. I got hornier than ever and moaned to him "im so horny I need your dick!" Then after that he slid my thong off and got his dick and put it inside me. I moaned loudly the whole time he was humping me. He would shove his dick in and then take it almost all the way out. I was touching myself while moaning. Then I moaned "oh! Jimmy. Oh!" this got him hornier so he went faster and then I told him if I could get on him. So he laid down and I started sucking his dick and kissing everywhere then when his dick was really hard I rode him I rode it slowly so I wasn't that horny after a few minutes I stoped because of a knock on his door. Then I went home and the next day a different story.

About the Author

I met this guy at school he would always be flirting but I thought he did that with everyone. Then that night I got so happy. I have been having sex with him since then. We're together now.
