

Husband and my Mum

My husband John had never really looked at my mother in a sexual way (or so he tells me!) but a couple of weeks ago all that changed and it excites John, me and my mother.

John and I have always been fun loving however most things we have done has involved me!!! I love flashing and I know that men enjoy looking at my tits with many having had a feel of them, sucked on my nipples and even had other men make love to me.

A month ago my mother rang me to say there was something wrong with her computer and would John be able to pop round at some stage to have a look and see if he could see what was wrong.

"No problem I will get him to pop in on the way home from work."

I rang John to ask him if that was ok and he agreed to.

John now takes up the story.....

I left work and remembered to go and see if I could fix Eunice's computer. I arrived and knocked on her front door, she opened it and was wearing her work clothes which consisted of a white blouse buttoned up to just above the start of her cleavage and a skirt which was just below her knees in length. Just normal office dress code!!

"Hi!" she said "my computer is running really slow could you have a look at it for me please?"

"No problem" I replied.

Now Eunice is 60, about 5ft 3, slightly overweight and her tits must be about 40DD. I had never really thought of her sexually but knew where her daughter got her tits from!!

As i was checking through different parts of the computer Eunice was stood just beside me and her tits were about eye level. I could see her lacy bra through her sheer blouse and i was having glances to see if the bra was see through but it wasn't.

"Have you down loaded anything on here lately?" I asked.

"Only some pictures from the camera" she replied.

"Not rude ones I hope!" I said jokingly

"Ha chance would be a fine thing" was Eunice's response.

I started to look at different files in the computer and then suddenly came across a file which had the father in laws name on. Without thinking I opened it and there were photos and videos in there.

"What are those?" Eunice asked "Let me have a look!"

I was not sure if I should open them but she was insistant. As I scrolled through them we looked at images of naked women, men and women together and pictures that had obviously been down loaded from sites on the internet of 2 men and 1 woman in various sexual positions.

"What the fuck has he been doing on here?" Eunice's voice brought me back to reality, I stammered "I don't know. Did you not know he looked at porn on here?"

"No I didn't!!! Let me look at the videos!" she almost ordered me!

I clicked on the first one and was aware that Eunice was now leaning over my shoulder and i could feel the closeness of her tits. I looked sideways and could see her nipple starting to stick out through her bra. Her breathing started getting heavier as she watched the computer screen where there was a woman sucking on a hard cock and she was rubbing with her bald pussy with a big black dildo. Inadvertently I placed my hand on my now hard cock to re-adjust it's position.

"That looks nice" said Eunice.

I looked up to see she was now looking at the bulge in my trousers. She leant forward and reached down as i felt her huge tits on my shoulders. I turned the computer chair round and she moved away slightly and went straight onto her knees and her hands went straight for my zip and she undid my trousers. Without any fuss she pulled my cock out and said "mmm let me taste it."

I knew it was wrong but I was not going to stop her now. As she started to kiss and suck my cock she was watching the computer screen and replicating what the girl on there was doing. I could feel her wrapping her tongue around it, then nibbling my cock with her teeth. I was trying my hardest not to come quickly with this new mouth around my cock but it was difficult.

I leant forward and started to play with her tits and I could feel her nipples nice and hard as i tweaked them between my fingers. Eunice let out a sigh and then stood up took off her blouse and bra and walked over to the sofa. Just before she sat down she took off her skirt and knickers and told me to lick her pussy as it needed some attention. I walked over to her and stripped off, got on my knees and kissed the inside of Eunice's thighs, slowly moving up to the glistening lips of her pussy. I flicked my tongue across her lips and she squealed and started to move her cunt towards my mouth. As I kissed those gorgeous lips Eunice started to shout that she was coming and I could taste her juices across my tongue and mouth. I dived in and tongue fucked her for all I was worth and she was writhing on the sofa saying that she had wanted me for such along time and this was awesome. After she came again she pushed me off and led on the floor and told me to tit fuck her. I got on top of her and she pushed her tits together to allow me to put my cock between them. I rocked back and forth allowing her to occasionally lifting her head up to kiss the end of my cock as it pushed forward.

Eunice looked up at me and said "Please come over my tits" the pleading look in her eyes was the last straw and I erupted shooting sperm up her body over her tits and some even hit her face. She put her tongue out and licked some from the corner of her mouth and took it into her mouth. As I rolled off her she kissed me and said "That was lovely, we need Mandy's permission for you to fuck me but I don't think that will be a problem," the wicked smile she had on her face made me ask her if this was planned.

"Oh no" she said but Mandy has told me what you are like in bed and she is not wrong!"

I was stunned that Mandy and Eunice had talked about me in such a way and that her mum had wanted me!! We got dressed and I left still stunned by what had happened and the words of Eunice "Don't feel guilty" still in my ears.

Mandy can now finish the story.....

My mum rang me and said "Mandy you are right John is lovely in bed although he never fucked me I tasted his cock and he licked me to orgasm. He came over me and I tasted his cum...it was lovely. Thank him for me and can I have your permission to make love to him?" "Oh no" of course you can"

I was so excited by the time John came home that I was naked at the door to greet him and as he walked in I said "Mum says thank you and I have given her my permission"

John smiled and took me in his arms and carried me to the sofa and got on his knees.....
