

My wife and her best friend

It all started out by going to a party for my wife best friend (Tasha). She was going to be moving to California and we were giving her a going away party. When myself and my wife (Dana)got to the party everyone had started to mingal and all were drinking. The time had flew by and it was a little past midnight and everyone was feeling pretty tipsy except for me because I was going to be driving back to our house. Tasha was had drank to much to drive and my Dana offered her a ride back to her apartment. When we got in the car to head home Dana a Tasha started to cry because they said they were going to miss each other. They had worked together for almost five years now and became really close. I told them that I would just go straight to our house and we could bring Tasha home in the morning. So we headed to our house! While I was driving the to ladies ended up falling asleep in the front seat together. Let me discribe my wife first to you. She is 5'4" 105LBs and a ass that any man would die for, with very percky grapefriuot size titts. Now Tasha is a little taller than my wife 5'9" with a very nice figure and around 125LB and blonde hair, and very big tits. Now as I am driving I look over in the passanger seat and noticed that Tasha's sundress had slid up her leg exposing her blue undies. I new that there was not much any panties there because I could see her pussy that looked to be cleaned shaven. I had never really thought of Tasha in that way and never had any sexual feeling towards her, but something inside me made my dick very hard. I tried to concentrate on driving but could not take my eyes off her pussy. I wanted to just reach over and touch it and lick her one time. My heart started beating really fast as I kept looking at her. I decided to turn up to radio and see if anyone of them would notice. When I did the girls never moved a bit. I reached over a pushed Tasha on the shoulder and she just would lay there. My wifes hand was sitting in her on lap and she looked to be out herself, so I took her hand and placed it on Tasha's pussy. When I did this neither of them ever moved a muscle. That is when I decided I would reach down a try to get a feel of Tasha's pantied covered pussy. As I started to rub her pussy I moved my wifes hands out the way a bit to give me better access. When my finger came into contact she was fucking so hot I almost cummed in my slacks. I moved her panty to the side and for the first time seen her slick of her pussy and she was cleaned shaven just like my wife. I pulled my finger back to my face and smelt her arouma, it was fucking great. We were getting very close to being home and I did not want this to end so I slowed down a bit. This time when I reach over I grabbed her knee and spread her legs just a bit furture to give me better access to her pussy. I stuck my finger in my mouth and wet it, then reached over and placed it on her pussy and pushed it in a bit, I looked down and could see her beautiful clit. Seeing that I grabbed her hand and placed it on my cock just to have her touching me. I played with her pussy for what seemed like 5 minutes then Dana started to move a bit so I moved my hand and put hers back on her lap. Just as I was was finish My wife turned and asked me how long before we would be home. I told her in 5 minutes she replied good because I have to pee. I thought she was going to notice Tasha dress was not covering her pussy but she just laid her head back. We made it to the house and I woke Dana up to let her know we where home. She hurried and jumped out with the house key to open the door, but I noticed she could hardly walk. I asked if she was ok and she tells me just to Tasha get in and she would be fine. The things that started running thru my head was driving me crazy. I got out and went around to the other side and opened the door Tasha was passed out. I reached in a shook her but she would not move. So as I was going to try and pull her towards the door she kind of fell into my arms with her upper body hanging out the care. Thats when I noticed her sundress a came up exposing her ass to me and I could see she had a blue thong on that was stuck deep in the crack of her fine ass. With my arms holding her up and her head even with my I was about to explode. I just had to see more so I decided to lean the car seat back and layed he in the seat with her head back. I did not know if Dana was going to come back to the car and check on us are what had happend so I opened the door very quietly and walked in the house. When I got to our bedroom I noticed she had took her dress off and was passed out on the bed in just a pink G-string. I thought I must have been in heaven. I hurried back to the car and Tasha was still out and her dressed was still up exposing her. I dropped to my knees on the side of the car and swung her legs to the outside. As I got her knees apart and stuck my nose in her panty covered pussy. It smelled wonderful, and I stuck my tougue out and tasted her sweet pussy for the first time. As I pulled her panty to the side and started licking her pussy her hand moved up to her titties and pinched her nipple. I stopped for a second and jump up. But she kept pulling her nipples as I watched her, and then she stopped. That made me nervous so I shook her and she would not move. I then grabbed her by the arm pulled her out the car and when I did so she woke up. She asked where we were, then I said I was trying to get her in the house. She asked where Dana was and I said she passed out in our bed. Thats when she dropped her hands and started to fall and I caught her. In doing so her hand came into contact with my cock and she look me in the eye and ask what were you and Dana up too? I laughed and said we were fooling around until she pasted out. (Poor boy she said, how can she pass out with something like that to play with.) I laughed and started carring her into the house. When we passed by the room she noticed Danna laying there in here pink G-string and looked at me and said your a very luck man Tom. I replied only if she was not passed out. I asked if she wanted the couch and she replied I think your and Danna's bed is big enough for all three of us. I said that is not a good idea for all three of us to be in there, I will let you have my spott and I will lay on the couch. After I laid her down she asked if I had a t-shirt she could put on and I said Danna don't have one on what do you need one. I will be sleeping on the couch. She asked if I could get her somthing for a headache before she went to sleep and I told her I would be right back. When I got to the cabinet I noticed I had some muscle relaxers by the advil from when I had hurt my back. I reach and grabbed 2 of them and headed to the room. When I got to the room I noticed my wife was not on the bed and had went to the rest room. I looked over a Tasha and her eyes were closed so I shook her. As she work up Danna walk out the rest room and said I see you finally got her drunk ass out the car. She was still just in her pink G-String. She ask who the water and aspirin were far and I told her Tasha had asked for one, she notice I had 2 and ask who the other was far and I thought fast and said I was going to take that one. She asked if she could have it and I said sure. First Tasha took hers, and a sip of water than Danna took hers. Neither one of them reliezed it was not advil. My wife laid in the bed and asked me where I was going I told her the couch. She than said why want you lay her next to me, and she pushed to the middle. I was wanting to lay in the middle instead but did not dare to say that, not wanting her to I would try to do anything with Tasha. As we laid in the bed I could not help but think of what happened in the car. I could not go to sleep thinking about it and my dick was hard like rock now. With two beautiful women in bed with me in nothing but a thong and G-string I was going nuts. As I turned towards my wife my cock was pushing right in the crack of her ass. I could not help but wrap my arm around her a place it on her breast. Her nipples were sticking out seemed like a inch. As I played with her tits I could not help but think of Tasha and the car. I released Danna nipple and reach across just to feel where Tasha was laying and my hand came into contact with her ass. By now the headache medication that they took are thought they took must have started to work. I figured I would see just how good it was working buy pulling my cock out and rubbing it between my wifes legs and see if she would react to me. As I did this nothing happen so I took it a little future. I reached in the night stand and grabbed our K-Y and grabbed Danna's dildo. I squirted some on my cock and on the dildo. I moved Danna's G-string to the side and started to try and work my cock in her pussy, she was so fucking hot. Now my cock is better than average at about 7 1/2" long and with good width. So I new if she would wake up it would be now and there would be know problems I would just tell her I was very excited and needed to fuck. As I was doing this I reached over and started rubbing Tasha's ass. I pulled her thong out the crack of her ass and ran my finger across her asshole and pussy. I thought I felt her move but could not tell so I continued to rub. Now I have my cock in Danna's pussy about 3 inches of it and running my finger over Tasha's pussy. I did'nt know how long I was going to last like this since I had been so excited. I still had my wifes dildo sitting next to me and the KY so I put a little KY on it and brought it over to Tasha's pussy and rubbed it up and down. When I thought her pussy was lub up enough I slowly inserted it in her. I did not turn it on just yet due to not taken a chance on waking her up. As I started sliding in my wife and pulling all the way out to lub her up and continue to fuck Tasha with the dildo. As I was fucking my wife a felt someones hand grab my hand that was working on Tasha. I froze and just about went limped when I felt the hand start to move the dildo back into Tasha's pussy. As I tried to pull my hand away a felt Tasha move in the bed and come closer to me. I did not know what to do and she whispered for me to get in the middle of her and Danna. I told her I did not want to wake Danna up and she said for me not to worry Danna took the pain pill I had gave her. I aske what about the one you took she said it is on the night stand. I told her I thought you took it she said nope. When I pulled out of Danna and crossed over her very slowly not to wake her. When I layed in the middle of both of them my heart was pounding so hard I thought it would explode. Tasha reach for my hand and placed it on the dildo. I asked her why she did not take the pill I gave her and she said she wanted to finish what I had started in the car. She said I would have fucked you in the car if you would not have stopped. I asked when did she notice what I was doing? She says as soon as I pulled my dress up for you to see when we got in the car. Then she put her finger to my lip and said I want to fuck with Danna in the bed with us. I told her if we get caught she will kill me. She reached and grabbed my cock and said are we going to talk are fuck. I then slid under the blanket up to her pussy and pulled the dildo out. She got up and let me get under her so we were in a 69. I could not wait to taste her pussy for real this time. I started licking her and felt her lips touch my cock for the first time. I new I would not last long since all the playing I had done. I told her that it felt so good and I would not last long and she pushed her pussy down hard on my face and I felf her cum all over my face. I with that I could not hold back and blew my load down her throat. She held me there for what seemed like 5 minutes and swallowed every bit of my cum. As I continue to lick her pussy and asshole she started sucking me. When I got hard again I pushed her off of me and went up to kiss her on her nipples. She whispered and told my that Danna told her I could lick pussy really good and I did not diappoint her. I asked what all they talk about and she told me everything. She even told her that I had a nice cock and that she loves sucking and fucking me. I could not believe what I was hearing. I leaned in and kissed her really good and asked her if she would like for me to show her how I fuck Danna with my cock. She says that is what I been waiting on for the last 4 years. I could not believe what I was hearing. I grabbed her and told her to turn and put her face at the foot of our bed. She ask what was the reason for doing that. I told her if she really wants this cock she better do what I say. With that said she turned towards the foot of the bed. I made her turn on all fours and reach up and handed her the dildo. When I gave it to her she ask what you want me to do with this. I told her when I tell you too I want you to rub it on Danna pussy while I am fucking you. She asked if I wanted to get caught and I said if we do than I will have to fuck her all the time. As I started to fuck her getting up to a good pace I said rub her pussy with the dildo. She said no, so I stopped fucking her. She said please don't stop and I said rub her pussy or I will fuck her and not you. With that said she reached over and rubbed her though her G-String. I started fucking her rocking even harder and faster. As I was fucking her I told her to pull my wifes G-string to the side and slip the dildo in her. She said I was one crazy mother fucker. I said I will stop if you do not do what I say. She moved my wifes G-string and inserted in her pussy and started moving it at a steady pass. I was fucking hard now and she was starting to moan I told her to pull the dildo out my wife and put it in her mouth. She did and said she taste so sweet, I replied I know that is whay your going to lick her now while I fuck you. I did not have to say it twice she went down and started eating my wifes pussy like a wild woman. I felt her pussy contract around my cock and I new she had just cummed. Then I notice my wife had her hands on the back of Tasha's head pushing her hard against her pussy. She started bucking really hard and screaming so I new she was cumming. With all this I could not hold on any longer and shot my load deep in Tahsa'a pussy. When I pulled out Tasha fell on the bed and Danna reached up and grabbed me and pulled next to her and asked me if I liked fucking her friend. I thought it might be a trick question and was silent for a moment. She says well Tasha was he as good as I said he was? Tasha replied to her just like you told me he was. My wife then said now since we are all awake sticky why don't we do this agian. My cock got hard in a instant. With that Danna tells me to get behind her and fuck her. Than she told Tasha to lay in front of her so she could taste pussy for the first time. This was the most exciting thing I think I have ever heard. I could
