

Sex & Enema punishment with best friend

Me & my friend Breanna had been friends for 20 years. We had known each other since the age of 6, starting in the teen years we kept on getting closer & closer, the more Breanna aged the more i started to come sexually attracted to her, so finally when we were both 18. & she was so amazingly hott. that i could not take it no more & i had to have sex with her.. shes a very hott Redhead, with 34D tits, I got so hard looking at here she always wore shirts that show cleavage. and her having full lips as well One cold night in December she was sitting in front of the fire place keeping warm, I came close to her & slowly ran my hands over her body, i got closer and started to kiss her on the lips, my hands went down her back to her butt cheeks and I squeezed softly at first then did it harder, then we french kissed, I slide my hand into her pants & ran my finger outside her butt, then slowly put a finger into her butt she was loving it alot after a while of kissing we both got naked, we hugged tight her boobs pressing into my body, I loved that, we stood up & got behind her as i was kissing her on the neck & placed my hands on her tits & squeezed em, she loved that too, I then got on the floor and laid on my back I was rock hard, she slowly sucked me and licked my penis. & we then moved to the couch, she laid on her back, I licked her pussy & stuck my tounge in, then I got on my feet & i slide my hard penis deep into her pussy I fucked her nice N slow, I did not use a condom, I kept going I came deep inside her pussy, she loved it that she could feel the warming of it.. after that went cleaned up took a shower & we went to bed Next morning we did it all over again, and again and again all the week, After a week and some days had passed I noticed she had not had BM for a while, as the week passed i caught her a few times holding it in, I looked her in the eyes & said, you young lady are gonna get an enema, as punishment for holding your BM's in I walked her to the bathroom told her to lay on the floor on her back and wait for me I went & got an enema bag out of the closet & assorted nozzles & the shower shot enema. I filled the bag full with warm water & enema soap, I hung the bag on the towel rack got down on the floor & I put 1 finger in her butt & sure enough there was a big, solid poop blocking the way, it was huge and so solid. I held my fingering against it for a good while, then I put the enema nozzle in her butt, the enema nozzle hit up against the blockage, opened the clamp & just held it there for a very long time,, bout 30 mins later she this done make sense, all i said in reply was its for you own good & its a punishment, Ill hold it there all night if i have to as the hours passed, i was still holding the nozzle against the blockage, I then started to push the nozzle against it harder & harder still holding it there, I attached the shower shot to the shower head took out the nozzle closed the clamp, and I put the shower shot gave it a few good bursts and it worked well the blockage was gone, I went back to using the enema bag, i put on another nozzle, a bigger, thicker longer one, I did NOT lube it I just shoved it in deep, made her take the whole bag then made her hold it in for a good 20 mins, I gave her about 5 more enemas after that, I said to her dont hold your BM;s in again, or ill do this all lover again, as a final before bed, I shoved my penis into her butt and fucked her ass very very hard THE END. the sex was great, I came in her alot everytime we had sex, we now have 2 girls
