

old woman next door

It started out just a favor for the older lady next door. She called me over to change a light bulb. I had done odd jobs for her before because she didn't have anyone to help. No this story isn't about a MILF next door. This nice old lady is in her early sixties and is an average looking 60's year old lady.

I was standing on the ladder and she was going about her business, when I ask her to hand me a light bulb. When I reached down to get the bulb I got a view right down her shirt. Wow she did have some big breast and she got me looking so I look up and starting changing the bulb without looking down again until i was headed down the ladder. When I got to the floor and turned around she had pulled her shirt up to expose the old wrinkled breast that were hanging to her navel.

I am not sure what came over me at this point, I never thought i could be attracted to a wrinkled old lady who is 25 years older than me. But all I could think of was getting those nipples in my mouth. So with out saying a word I bent down and grabbed a sagging old titty and brought it to my mouth. She started moaning on my first lick. She was leading me to the couch the whole time I was sucking her nipples.

When we got to the couch, I ask her if she would like to have sex. She told me she hadn't has sex in 6 years and as she was talking I was pulling her clothes off her. When I pulled her pants down off around her feet, I stopped and played with her feet, rubbing, licking, sucking thoses wrinkles old feet. She was moaning so loud now that it was such a turn on. Then she ask me to stop and pull down my pants. As I stood up she unzipped my pants and pulled them down exposing my rock hard dick. No this a true story so my dick is not 9 inches like everyone else on this site, its only 5 1/2 inches rock hard.

She ask me to lay back on the floor and I had no idea what was next, when she started playing with my cock with her feet. I had never had a women do this to me before, but I loved it. As she was playing with my dick with her feet she asked me how fast after I cum could I get it hard again. I told her with help about 20-30 mins. With that said she laid back and the couch and told me to stand. As I did she held her feet out and ask me to fuck her feet. Not knowing quite how to do this and she wasn't sure either, it took us a few tries before finding a position that work.

I was sliding my hard cock between the soles of her wrinkle old feet, I could not believe how turned on I was, watching her sagging tits flopping all over as I fucked her feet. After about 4 mins of slow fucking her feet, she told me to fuck them hard and fast and cum all over her feet. With that said I starting pushing her feet around my cock tighter as my thrusting was as hard and fast as i could. One minute later i was shooting the biggest load of my life all over her feet. Wow that was so amazing. See part 2 of the old lady next door to find out what happened next.
