

old woman next door (part 2)

part II

After shooting my load all over her feet, I sat down on the couch. She told me that she wanted my hard cock inside of her. She reached over and started playing with my dick, as she did I was looking at her wrinkled body, her sagging tits, and those sexy feet that I had just fucked. After about 20 minutes of restful play, she bent over and took my dick in her mouth, sucking the head every so softly. As it sprang to life she ask me if I could fulfill a lust of hers. I ask her what she wanted and she responded "fuck me on my kitchen table". She stood up with her tits sagging almost to her waist, took me by the hand and we went to the kitchen.

She leaned against the table and pull me closer, then to my surprise she kissed me on the mouth. At first I was a bit shaken by this, as she wasn't very attractive. But then she pull me in close again and kiss me again on the mouth, this time sliding her tongue in my mouth. This caused my dick to get rock hard and I grabbed her tight and we kiss and fondled each other. When I reach down to rub her pussy, I found it dripping wet.

The urge to eat her pussy was more than I could stand, I laid her back on the table and spread her legs and bent down and dove in. She had very little hair around her pussy and to my surprise tasted so good. It didn't take about two licks to her clit and she was moaning and groaning. When I buried my tongue deep into her pussy and lick around, she grabbed my hair pulled me in tight and shook with a huge orgasm.

The thrill of this sent a blood rush to my dick, it was the hardest its ever been. With delay I stood up spread her legs and slid my hard cock into her dripping wet, warm, tasty pussy. She was begging me to fuck her hard, but I wanted this to last, so I was just pumping her slowly and playing with her sagging tits. I leaned over and started sucking her nipples while pumping slowly. I couldn't believe how tight her pussy was, it felt like it had a death grip on my dick. I told her that she was so tight I felt like I was about to cum. Hearing that she reach down and grabbed the back of my shaft and pulled it out. she then slid her hand down the shaft found the head of my dick and pinched it so hard I yelled. She said there that will keep you from cumming to soon.

With that done I was in some pain when she guided it back into that warm wet place. I started pumping again when she ask me to place both of her feet on my chest. Grabbing her feet I lift them up to rest on my chest. So here we were her laid back on the kitchen table, her feet flat on my chest, my hard dick buried all the way into her pussy.

Let me tell you, I did not have a foot fetish before this, but her feet are so sexy. So as I am pumping her good, I am playing with her feet, kissing and licking her toes, while she is moaning and groaning like I have never heard. This was such a turn on, I have never had a woman enjoy sex this much. It made the sex so much better. after about 10 minutes of fucking her and playing with her feet, she told me to bend her over the table and fuck her from behind. I helped her up from her back and bent her over the table, this was the first time that I got a good view of her ass. It was old and sagging and very wide, I could also see her clit was begging to be fucked. She was moaning that the cool table felt good on her nipples. As I was getting ready to slide the head in she slid her hand down from under her belly and found my cock and started rubbing the head telling me that she loved my dick, mind you with just 5 1/2 inches hard I haven't had any women tell me that.

She told me she wanted this to be the best fuck ever, cause she didn't think that I would ever fuck her again. I knew that I was so excited that I would blow my load soon, I too wanted this to be the best fuck ever. I told her I don't know how long I could last as I was so damn hot and excited to be fucking her. She asked me if I wanted her to pinch the head of my dick again, now that did hurt like hell, but was very effective. I told her to make it quick before changing my mind. She pinched the head of my dick again and I let out a yell.

Now she told me to fuck her as hard as I wanted. So I slide my now hurting cock into her warm wet pussy. As it slid all the way in and my balls were touching her, I all but forgot the pain at the head of my dick. Her pussy was so tight I felt like a glove. After about 5 strokes, I started slamming it in and out, I could feel my ball slapping with every stroke, she was moaning and groaning and telling me what a great dick I had. This was such a turn on for me. I grabbed her by the hips and started fucking her with all my might.

This was not doubt the best sex I have ever had, watching that big ass flop around was such a sight. She had plenty of cushion back there that's for sure. We were in a fucking frenzy when she let out a yell like an animal and I felt a warm rush all around my balls running down my legs. This sent me into the biggest orgasm of my life. I have never shot that much cum in my life. After I was spent I fell down across her back. We stayed in that position as my cock shrank back down and pulled away from that tight wet pussy. She suggested that we go take a shower and get cleaned up before I had to leave.

As we were going to the shower the guilt hit me, I have been married for 20 years and had never cheated before. Tune into part 3 to learn what happens next.
