

Old woman

I hadn't seen or talked to Mary in a few weeks. But I was lusting after every old lady I seen, every where I went. I think I have discovered a gold mine, are most older women sex starved and would give into a much younger man. This is something that I must find out.

I stopped off at the library to pick up my kids, while I was waiting for them to finish I noticed the older lady sitting up front. She looked to be at least 60 year old, her hair put up in a bun, nice dress buttoned up high, and very large chest. I starting thinking of a way to get to meet her. I went up to the counter and ask her where the magazine section was, she pointed over the the other side of the large room. I said "thank you very much" and before I left the counter I added "that is a very pretty dress you are wearing". She said thanks and I walked away. Before long the kids were ready to leave and as we were walking past the counter I winked and said bye on the way out the door. She gave me the biggest smile and told me bye.

The next day I decided to go back to library and try and put the moves on this sexy old lady. I went to the counter where I seen her yesterday and there was someone else working. I was about ready to leave when I spotted her putting books on the shelves. As I was walking over tot he section where she was working, I was thinking of what to say or do. I didn't want to spend the next few months working my way up to hitting on her.

As I got close she noticed me and waved, I went up to her and said hello. We made small talk at first being very quiet, I took in the view now that she wasn't sitting behind a desk. She was about 5' 8", at least 38 DD, green eyes, grey hair, slender legs, and a huge looking bubble butt. As I joked with her a couple of time, she reached out and touched my arm. Was she flirting back or just being friendly, I couldn't tell. As I got more relaxed talking with her, I just blurted out "so what time do you get off work". I just about died when that came out of my mouth, but to my suprise she answered "9:00pm, why do you ask". Now I froze, I didn't know what to say next, so I stood frozen looking right into her eyes, ready to run off.

Then she spoke and broke the silence, well why were you asking she said. I know you are not asking me out on a date, because I see that you are wearing a ring. That might as well been a dagger though my heart. My response to that just slipped right out of my mouth as I told her, "well I don't know why I am asking, I am just drawn to you since I noticed you last night when I was here. So I came back tonight to get a chance to talk with you. At this point her smile was so big that I knew I might have a chance if I could close this deal.

She said "I see" so again I am asking you what did you have in mind when you ask me what time I got off work. She was trying to pin me down, and I didn't know her intent. So I said how about a cup of coffee after work tonight, without a second thought she said yes to pick her up out front at nine.

I got out of the house and was waiting out front of library at nine. I seen Bev comming down the stairs so I rolled down the window and waved to her. She got into the car and I ask her where she would like to go for coffee. She said is that a good idea with me being married, then offered up why don't we swing through a drive up and get coffee and drive around and talk. So we did just that.

We made small talk before getting the coffee and then the conversation turned a little more exciting after we drove around drinking the coffee. Bev asked "be honest with me, why did you come back to talk to me". I told her that I was attracted to her and thought she was sexy. She asked "why would a nice young man be attracted to this old woman". The stop light just turned red and as I stopped I reached down and put my hand on her left leg and repeated "I think you are a very pretty and sexy lady". She turned away to look out her window, I was getting ready to pull my hand back and she placed her hand over mine.

The light turned red and I drove to the next side street and pulled over and shut my lights off. I reached over and pulled Bev close to me and gave you a kiss on her nice full lips. Bev came to life and kissed me back, as we embraced our tounge found each other. After about 5 minutes of kissing her mouth and neck line she was very hot. Bev ask me back to her apartment, I quickly reponded yes. She told me where she lived and I started driving. I reached over and started rubbing her left leg, and then reaching over to try and rub her pussy without wrecking the car. She was very responsive to that move and spread her legs. I rubbed her pussy through her dress until we reached her apartment with her moaning the whole way there.

When we got through her front door and it shut, she grabbed me by the hand and led me to the couch. We started kissing and rubbing each other all over. She had already kicked her shoes off on the way to the couch. I got her dress off her with no problem, which got me a great veiw of her massive breast. As I was kissing her neck I unhooked her bra from behind letting those huge tits come free. Wow, her nipples were so hard and huge, I starting sucking her nipples and I slipped my hand down her panties to find she was soaking wet.

Thats all I could stand, I stopped sucking her nipples and pulled her panties and slip off her so fast. I dove down and started sucking her swollen clit, which drove her into a frenzy. Her hips were bucking me but I grabbed her legs tightly and sucked and licked her clit. She was bouncing around and moaning that she was cumming, and that she was all over my face rushed her warm juices. I made her cum 2 more time before I stopped licking that warm wet pussy.

Then I stood up and took my shirt off, pulled down my pants and stepped out of them. She reached over and pulled down my underwear to expose my rock solid dick. She pulled me close and started kissing and licking the head. I was looking at her out of shape body, huge sagging tits with the nipples sticking straight out, and those wide hips.

I said "Bev turn around and let me see that great ass of yours". She turned over on the couch and stuck it up in the air. Her ass was huge, bigger than I thought it was. Her ass seemed to stick out a foot higher than her back. I climbed up behind her and started rubbing the huge ass and watching it jiggle. I moved in closer and guided my hard dick into her warm wet pussy. Bev moaned as I slid it in all the way. I left it in for a moment, as I told her just how sexy her huge ass was. She was pushing against me as I was rubbing that big ass. She then was begging me to fuck her.

I was so turned on by that huge bubble shaped ass. I started pumping Bev, with each thrust I made she met me with a her own thrust, my balls were slamming against her on every stroke. I grabbed both side of her ass and was pumping her pussy with all that I had. Bev continued to moan as my cock was doing its job and her warm, tight, juicy pussy. We fucked for about 6 mins and I felt my load was getting close. I ask Bev if I could finish up by fucking her tits. She turned over and I mounted her big huge breast. She held her tits together tight for me as I slide my cock between her tits. I had enough juice from her pussy still on my cock that it slide in easy.

I was so turned on to see her huge nipples still rock hard as I pumped those massive tits. I started out slowly for about a minute, then she got into it and was telling me to fuck her titties good. I pounded those huge tits for the next 60 seconds with all my might. She was telling me to shot my load on her nipples, as I told her that I was about to cum, she grabbed my dick and started rubbing the head against one of her hard nipples. This cause shoot a load with such force that it missed her nipples and went all over her neck. Bev continued to stroke and milk every last drop out of my dick. What a fuck this had been. As we kissed after that great sex, she ask me if I had time to eat her pussy again, and promised me that if I did, she would give me the blow job of my life (well that's another story)
