

Her Body Betrays Her

The ropes are already biting into her skin; she's thinking she's made a mistake. It's too late to back out now though. She knows he will never let her go; he already has her tied to the table. The men have paid money to come see her taken. They want to see her degraded, see her in pain she can barely stand. They want to hear her muffled screams and see her tears. She can hear them in the other room talking. She knows they will be in with her soon so she tries to prepare herself.

She is tied spread eagle on the table with her ass hanging over the edge. This is for easy access when they come to use her ass and pussy. The ropes are also tied across and around her breast making them stand up. They are turning purple from the ropes being so tight. Her nipples are hard, standing at attention, waiting for their mouths and hands.

The double doors at the end of the room open and the men start filing in. They all come to look at her and watch her Master tie the ball gag over her mouth. The fear in her eyes turns them on, their cocks are getting hard. Her Master passes out crops to each man. He welcomes them to start using them on her, getting her ready for the rest. They start hitting her all over her body, there's at least ten or twelve of them. She closes her eyes because she doesn't really want to know.

She feels the stinging start from the crops on her breast, pussy, face and legs. She can feel the welts start coming up all over her body. Her Master takes lube and starts rubbing it all over her pussy and asshole. He directs the men to another table in the corner of the room, where there is various tools to be used on her. Dildoes of all shapes and sizes are laying there. Nipple clamps, small whips and thick leather belts.

One man picks up a pair of nipple clamps and brings them to the table. He tightens them on her already swollen breast. To her shame and amazement the pain only gets her excited. She can feel her pussy start to get wet as its juice start to leak out. It runs down the crack of her ass getting her tight asshole wet too. Her Master laughs saying maybe they didn't need so much lube. This only deepens her shame, makes her hate the way her body is betraying her.

Another man brings a large dildo to the table that he shoves up her ass. He shows no mercy and she screams around the gag. He then takes his large cock and drives it up her pussy. One man starts fucking her asshole with the dildo as the other fucks her pussy. He must be at least eight to ten inches long. He pulls his cock all the way out then drives it back in with enough force to rock the table she is on.

The pain is horrible at first but then slowly starts to turn to pleasure. She feels her first orgasm building and tries to fight it but it rolls over her in waves. Making her pussy throb as the hard cock stretches her tight pussy. The other men continue to strike her body with the crops. Some are now hitting her with leather belts, this brings welts that start to bleed.

The man shoving the dildo up her ass pulls it out. He has to have one of her holes for his cock. He climbs on the table and straddles her chest. He pulls the gag from her mouth only to fill it with his hard, throbbing cock. He grabs her by her hair and holds her head still as he forces his cock down her throat.

Another man takes a large dildo and shoves it up her ass. As much as she hates it her body can't help but feel the pleasure of having all her holes filled. The men see the look of ecstasy on her face and get excited. They pull their cocks out and start to jack off over her. Globbs and globbs of cum start to land on her body everywhere.

They continue to use and abuse her till they are finally spent. She is now barely consciences as they slowly leave the room. Her Master comes and unties her and tells her how pleased he is. He says he is very proud of his good girl.

About the Author

This is the first time I've ever wrote a story like this. I enjoy reading them though so I hope I'm not far off base.
