

The Show

She sits alone on the beach in the dark
The sky is lit up with a million stars
She knows he will be there soon
Her excitement is growing by the second
Finally she feels his touch on her shoulders
She leans her head back to look up at him
He leans down and kisses her soft inviting lips
She reaches up and runs her hands through his hair
He lifts his lips off hers for a second to sit beside her
Then he holds her face in his hands
Once again he captures her lips in a deep long kiss
Their hands begin to roam over each others bodies
He leans down to kiss her breast
Slowly he takes her nipples into his mouth
He sucks them and nibbles them
His cock his growing longer and thicker
His hand slides between her legs to feel her wetness
It surprises him how wet she really is
She says she is already so hot she can't wait to cum
He wants to add a little more excitement
He takes her by the hand and leads her to the end of the pier
There he lifts her up to the hand rails
Her hot pussy lines up perfectly with his hard cock
Once again they start to kiss and caress each other
She asks about the people in the hotel behind them
She tells him they are in the spotlight by the light pole
He says he doesn't care he wants to show the world
How very much he loves her
He lifts her skirt and pulls off her panties
She reaches out and undoes his jeans
His hard cock stands erect and at attention
He slowly slides it into her hot throbbing pussy
She wraps her legs around his waist and pulls him in deeper
Harder and harder he thrusts his cock into her
She can no longer contain her excitement and starts to moan loudly
One by one lights come on in the rooms of the hotel
People start to come out on the balconies to enjoy the show
Knowing they are there just adds to their excitement
He thrusts deeper and deeper and kisses her hard
She can't take it anymore and her body explodes with pleasure
He joins her and they cum together in one spectacular moment
One by one the lights go off in the rooms behind him
They just kiss and giggle and plan their next moment
